MOVIES

Moving pictures were not an American invention but in fact they are an important American contribution to World entertainment. The major studios were located in the Hollywood section of Los Angeles, California. During the so-called Golden Age of Hollywood in the 1930's and 1940's over 400 movies were made and these movies were watched by an audience of over 90 millions Americans per week. Then movies became a great business and nowadays this sentence is still true. So who wants to taste a bit of Hollywood atmosphere? I think that almost everybody all over the world.
